1 OBJECTIVE	1.1 To frame and implement a whistleblower protection policy encouraging all employees to intimate the compliance officer of any unethical practice or misconduct relating to the rating, by another employee that came to his knowledge. 1.2 To monitor all instances of unethical practice or misconduct so as to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Promptly investigate, take appropriate steps against recurrence and suitable punitive action against the responsible employee(s)</li> <li>▪ Ensure that all reported events are investigated promptly by the compliance officer</li> <li>▪ Ensure that all investigations are completed within the time period specified in the policy</li> </ul>
2 APPLICABILITY	2.1 This policy applies to all employees, including full time, part time, contractual employees and internees (regardless of length of service).
3 PACRA GOVERNANCE CULTURE	3.1 PACRA has a governance culture whereby all employees can seek advice and / or make a disclosure of any instance that they consider an unethical practice or misconduct. 3.2 PACRA ensures all whistleblowers that they shall be protected from any reprisal for making such a disclosure and their claims / concerns will be addressed in a confidential, speedy and respectful manner.  “Retaliation against any employee for reporting in good faith any such concern and / or instance of violation is strictly forbidden and will not be tolerated” PACRA Employee Code of Conduct
4 WHAT MAY CONSTITUTE “MISCONDUCT”?	4.1 A disclosure of misconduct revolves either around a perceived actual “misconduct” or a risk that such misconduct will occur. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Differentiating Misconduct from Grievance: A grievance is a complaint about an employee’s own employment situation. In a disclosure of misconduct, the employee is a witness to a situation that, in the employee’s opinion, may harm others (colleagues, clients, company etc.), whereas, in grievances, the employee is the complainant to a development that may affect self only.</li> </ul> 4.2 The objective of establishing whistleblowing procedures is to ensure that a centralized process exists that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Encourages employees to raise concerns internally regarding any unethical practice or misconduct relating to the rating</li> <li>▪ Provides a direct and designated reporting channel for disclosures that may otherwise never be reported</li> <li>▪ Ensures disclosures by whistleblowers are fairly and appropriately assessed and acted upon</li> </ul> 4.3 Though it’s left to the judgment and perception of the whistleblower, the policy provides general guidelines on what clearly constitutes an unethical practice or Misconduct: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Immoral / unethical behavior including discrimination and harassment</li> <li>▪ Acts endangering someone’s health or safety or the work / general environment</li> <li>▪ Acts endangering PACRA’s reputation / business interests</li> <li>▪ Infractions of Regulatory Framework</li> </ul>

5 BLOWING A WHISTLE - PROCESS & REQUIREMENTS

- Violations of PACRA Policies
- Violations of PACRA Codes of Conduct
- Wastage of resources of the organization; and
- Acts of concealment of information

5.1 The concerns reported by the Whistle Blower should be factual and not speculative or in the nature of a conclusion and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature and extent of the concern.

5.2 PACRA whistleblowing process follows the following steps:

5.2.1 An employee comes across something that he / she perceives as an unethical practice or misconduct, in good faith and judgment (based upon his / her best understanding of PACRA Policies, Codes of Conduct and Regulatory Framework).

- It then becomes incumbent upon such employee to report this perceived misconduct as soon as possible

5.2.2 Where employee is of the view that the concern raised is serious due to involvement of senior management and has a significant adverse impact on the Company (including but not limited to serious fraudulent activities, criminal breach of trust and corruption), the matter shall be reported to the Board of Directors for their deliberation.

5.3 The employee (now a whistleblower) decides to blow the whistle and, in order to do so, fills the whistleblowing form.

SEE: Whistleblowing Form

5.4 The whistleblowing form should reach both Chief executive Officer (CEO) and Compliance Officer, unless there is conflict of interest, through the designated Compliance Communication E-mail: compliance@pacra.com

Provided that, where employee chooses to report the matter to Board of Directors, he may do so by way of a letter delivered either by post or email to Chairman of the Board.

5.5 An aspiring whistleblower may, for guidance and clarity purposes, consult the team leads and / or the senior management before actually blowing the whistle. When faced with such a consultation request, it is the express duty of the team Leads and senior management to make arrangements, without delay, to hear out the whistleblower in complete confidence and with care and respect. After considering the employee’s concern in the light of their own understanding of PACRA policies, codes of conduct and applicable law, the team leads and senior management may offer advice in good faith and unbiased judgment.

Under no circumstances can the Team Leads / Senior Management coerce the employee into not blowing the whistle

6 HOW RESOLUTION IS ACHIEVED?

6.1 The process to achieve resolution shall proceed as follows:

- i The Compliance Officer shall receive the whistleblower communication, conduct due diligence to establish the authenticity of the concern; while informing the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) that a concern has been voiced.
- ii In both case (the concern is found to be legitimate or unfounded), the Compliance Officer shall again proceed to inform the CEO.

- iii The response to concern may be concluded based on findings of the Compliance Officer. However, if considered necessary by the CEO, he may constitute an investigation team which then begins the investigation.
- iv The name of the whistleblower shall remain secret and be known only to the individuals involved in process of investigation. It is incumbent upon all those involved in the investigation to maintain confidentiality in perpetuity (during and after their employment at PACRA) regarding the proceedings and developments, therein.
- v No information residing inside PACRA (including Confidential Information) is off-limits for such investigation - including discussions with other employee and review of internal records, files, computer data, financial information etc.
- vi The investigation shall be concluded no later than one (1) month after the receipt of the whistleblower concern.
- vii The CEO decides and finalizes a resolution / remedy to the whistleblower’s concern. In case, the Board takes up a whistleblower concern, the resolution process, as introduced by the Board, would be followed.
- viii After conclusion of investigation, Whistleblowing Form is completed and the Compliance Officer shall inform the whistleblower of the outcome of the investigation.

Investigation of a Whistleblower Concern
Outcome	Consequence
	Whistleblower	PACRA
Claim proven to be true	No Reprisal	Prompt remedial action to be implemented against reported Misconduct
Claim proven to be unfounded but made in good faith	No Reprisal	–
Claim found to be malicious or otherwise made in bad faith	Disciplinary Action ( including termination )	–

7 TASKS

7.1 Whistleblower must use the whistleblower form to document the whistleblowing.

7.2 The investigation team is required to document the resolution / remedy, how it is implemented and its likely impact on the whistleblowing form
