Business Risk

Industry Dynamics Pakistan's overall production capacity for industrial gases currently stands at ~920TPD, with the major capacity lying with Ghani Chemicals and Pakistan Oxygen (formerly Linde Pakistan).With the expansion of third plant, Ghani Chemicals is now the largest manufacturer of Industrial and medical gases. Pakistan Oxygen has announced its capacity expansion for FY23. Meanwhile, demand for industrial and medical gases is expected to increase in line with the overall economic recovery.

Relative Position Pakistan Oxygen currently holds the leading position in industrial gases' industry with a market share of ~45%, whereas Ghani Chemicals follows with a share of ~37%.

Revenues The Company's topline is led by industrial gases, mainly Liquid Oxygen and Liquid Nitrogen, followed by chemicals segment mainly including Calcium Carbide. During FY20, net sales of the Company showed mild decline as sales of the company as at FY20 was clocked at 2,049 mln (FY19: 2,301mln).

Margins An increase in the cost of importing Calcium Carbide as well low prices of key products contributed to a substantial YoY decline in the Company's gross margins in FY20 as at 494mln (FY19: ~579mln). Company posted a net loss of ~PKR 160mln in FY20 (FY19: ~PKR 65mln) while net margin deteriorated to ~8% (FY19: ~3%).

Sustainability Given the economic slowdown, the impact of the new plant's operations on revenue and gross margins remains uncertain. Further, the plant is being financed through a debt:equity mix of ~80:20 which has resulted in increased finance cost burden and put further pressure on the profitability of the Company.

Financial Risk

Working Capital Ghani Chemicals' working capital requirements emanate from its need to finance its inventory of imported Calcium Carbide and offering relaxed credit terms to its customers. The Company's net cash cycle remained stagnant YoY in FY20 at 81 days. Meanwhile, the increased cost of importing Calcium Carbide as well as slow recovery of receivables from key customers has increased reliance on short-term borrowing. This has led to depletion of borrowing cushion at trade assets level.

Coverages Free cash flows as at Sep-20 is ~PKR 194mln. As at FY20 Free cash flow of the company was 300mln. While interest coverage remained stagnant YoY at 0.4x, (FY19: 0.5). Going forward, timely recovery of receivables, receipt of tied up tax refunds and cash flows from the new plant, in line with debt repayments, is critical to avoid further pressure on coverages.

Capitalization Ghani Chemicals' leveraging rose to ~60% in FY20 (FY19: ~56%) due to an increase in short-term borrowing as well as increase in long-term borrowing to finance equipment for the new plant. Meanwhile, the Company's Sukuk, issued in FY17, had an outstanding value of ~PKR 650mln as at June, 2020.
